Postgraduate students away from College on approved study leave may be charged at a lower rate for the period away provided that:	The absence for three months or greater.
	The absence is outside the UK.
	The lower fee is requested by the department/division.
	Approval is granted by the relevant Dean.
The lower rate of fee is the relevant part-time fee.
Writing-Up Students
Research students who are "writing-up" for a period of no longer than six months are charged a fee of £100.00.

† Except for Home/EU Occasional Students on MSc Mathematics and Finance where the maximum fee level for 2012-2013 will be £13,250.00.

Students from the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man
All students assessed as 'Islands' students - i.e. from the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man - are charged at the Overseas rate of fee.
Fee Remission Policy for Staff and their Children†
Staff Members
The fee remission scheme is available to full and part time staff who have a contract of employment with Imperial College (including honorary contracts issued by the Human Resources Division) and who are registered for a postgraduate degree of the College, the amount of fee remission is limited to £1,950.00 for full time staff with the balance of fees to be paid by the employee or their department or other sponsor. Fee remission is not available to employees registered for undergraduate degrees.
Staff registered on PGR degrees will be liable for a fee of £1,950.00 regardless of fee classification, this fee to be paid by the employee or their department or other sponsor.
To qualify for fee remission, staff should already have been employed for at least one year and the scheme will only be available for the duration of employment at the College. Where staff members are registered for a PhD as an integral part of their employment (for example as a Research Assistant) the minimum period of qualifying service will be waived.
For part-time staff, the available remission will be determined as above and calculated pro-rata to their contracted hours of employment.
Children of Staff Members
Fee remission may be provided to children of full-time or part-time staff of the College (but not those holding honorary contracts) provided that the conditions relating to the duration of employment are fulfilled and the child is enrolled on an undergraduate degree. The amount of fee remission will be equal to £3,000.00 (one third of the Home/EU undergraduate fee).
Where relevant, children of staff members will receive the greater of College financial aid (based on Residual Household Income as assessed by the Student Loans Company) or College fee remission but not both awards. Children of staff members are not eligible for fee remission for postgraduate degrees.
Where a staff member works on a part-time basis, the amount of College fee remission will be calculated on a pro rata basis however, the child will remain eligible for the greater of College fee remission or College financial aid on the same basis as for children of full-time staff members.
Fee Remission for ICU Sabbatical Officers
Those students on sabbatical leave in order to act as officers of ICU will not be required to pay tuition fees for the period of the leave.

† Applicable for 2012-2013 entry, all earlier entrants remain subject to the policy in force at the time of entrance to the College.

The full fee remission policy may be viewed on the Student Finance web pages.

Withdrawal &amp; Refund Policy
Undergraduates
Undergraduate students withdrawing from their course during the academic session will be charged a pro-rata fee based on the relevant full year fee (or their contribution to the full year fee) and the number of weeks or any part thereof studied during an academic session of 31 weeks subject to any liability caps in force. A refund will be made to the student of any balance of fees paid in excess of the reduced fee. Where the student is registered on a course with session lengths of greater than 31 weeks, any refund will be calculated pro-rata the number of weeks or any part thereof studied relative to the length of the session from which the student has withdrawn subject to any liability caps in force.
Where a student's fee (or part of a student's fee) is being paid by a sponsor, the sponsor will be charged a pro-rata fee/refunded on the same basis as above.
Postgraduates
Postgraduate students withdrawing from their course during the academic session will be charged a pro-rata fee based on the relevant full year fee (or their contribution to the full year fee) and the number of weeks or any part thereof studied during an academic session of 52 weeks. A refund will be made to the student of any balance of fees paid in excess of the reduced fee. Where a fee includes an application deposit, the deposit will be non-refundable in the event of withdrawal unless under extreme or exceptional mitigating circumstances; where the non-refundable deposit charge is greater than the pro rata fee, the sum refunded will be the course fee less the value of the non-refundable deposit.
Where a student's fee (or part of a student's fee) is being paid by a sponsor, the sponsor will be charged a pro-rata fee/refunded on the same basis as above.
Payment of Fees by Instalments
Home/EU undergraduate students who are eligible to be assessed for UK public funding in respect of tuition fees may pay fees in two instalments provided that their personally assessed contribution for the session exceeds £350. There is no charge for this facility.
Self-supported students other than Home/EU undergraduate students as above whose sessional fee exceeds £2,000 may pay fees in two instalments. A charge of 4% of the full fee is charged for this facility and must be paid with the first instalment.
Surcharge for Late Payment of Fees
Home/EU students who fail to meet their payment schedule will be required to pay a late payment surcharge of 8% of their personally assessed contribution, or £10, whichever is the greater.
Other self-supported students who have not paid their fees, or opted for and not paid the first of the instalments, by the due date given on their invoice, will be required to pay a late payment surcharge of 8% of the full fee.
Other self-supported students who have opted to pay by instalments, but who fail to pay the second instalment by the due date, will be required to pay an additional 4% late payment surcharge, making a total charge of 8% of the full fee.
